Harry Glasson Wows two crowds!

Harry Glasson, the bard from West Cornwall, brought his original Cornish music to two audiences of the Pacific Northwest Cornish Society in January. After three months, 12,544 miles, and 29 states, he and his longtime friend and road manager, Ken Goldsworthy, are back in Cornwall. "We have seen some places in 29 states, stands out most has met," Harry writes. share, the kindness been our comfort writing to say thank received and revived you."

field Wildlife Refuge, enjoying some Northwest bird watching.
Many people purchased CDs so they could continue to enjoy Harry's music, filled with messages of his fierce love of Cornwall.

Back home with his wife, Ann, Harry runs a tour company to share his beloved Cornwall with travelers. You can learn more on his web site,

Message from our president...Mary

I'm looking forward to having all of you in Vancouver, right here in my own back yard, so to speak. While you're at the Clark Public Utilities building for the PNCS meeting March 8, you're just around the corner from some rich Northwest history.

You can take a walk down Officers Row, where Gen. Ulysses Grant never lived, though a house is named for him, but Gen. George C. Marshall did live for a time. You can tour the O.O. Howard House, named for the founder of Howard University who once soldiered in Vancouver. You can tour Fort Vancouver, the first British settlement in the Northwest and home of the Hudson's Bay Company. You can visit Pearson Air Museum at one of the oldest continuously operated airports in the country, where the first Soviet transpolar flight touched down in 1937.

All this is within walking distance of our meeting place. They call the area "One Place Across Time," and indeed it is a slice of Vancouver - and Northwest - history. Whether any Cornish people worked for the Hudson's Bay Company or were stationed at Fort Vancouver, I don't know. One thing the area does not have is a mine. And I'm sure there were no Cornish people on that Soviet airplane.

At the last meeting in October, members discussed revising the web site. It soon became apparent that none of us was young enough to know how to do it. I have enlisted the help of a young man in a computer graphics course at Fort Vancouver High School. The new site is not up and running yet, but I will give a report at the March 8 meeting.

Another thing to think about is officers. Don't duck when you hear the word! Bonnie LaDoe accepted the treasurer's post until the July elections, but prefers not to keep it as she's already treasurer of an organization that keeps her plenty busy. I also wouldn't mind passing on the presidency after my two-year stint. When I said yes to being an elder at church, my clock and calendar filled up. Elections will be in July, so we will need to appoint a nominating committee at the March meeting. I know that everyone who ever accomplishes anything is busy, but we'd love to spread the joy around! It's not an elected position, but we do need a newsletter editor or someone who would share the job.

Many thanks to Joan Tregarthen Huston for putting this issue together when Marcie was unable to do it due to family responsibilities.

See you March 8! With Gay Knutson in charge of the program, it's bound to be entertaining and enlightening.

PENPAL ANYONE?

Jean suggested that someone might want to take this fellow on as a penpal. Anyone interested? Here is a letter he sent to Yowann and was passed on to others.

Hello,
I have had a wonderful woman help me with researching my Cornish heritage. She referenced your email address to receive info. Any help to research the Basher family would be appreciated. Thank you again.

San Franciscan seeks help with Cornish roots

A name like Jose must be Hispanic, right? Wrong! If the name's pronounced JoZee, it's likely from Cornwall.

Finding the Pacific Northwest Cornish Society on the Internet, Tom McAteer of San Francisco wrote to see if anyone could help him learn about the Jose name. "My great-grandmother migrated here from Redruth, Cornwall, in the late 1880s," he writes. "Her father's name was Richard Jose. According to family records he was a wealthy cattle rancher in the Redruth area (I have no way to verify this)."

McAteer hopes someone can help him learn more about the name Jose, which is found in lists of Cornish names despite its Spanish sound.

If anyone can help Tom McAteer learn more about his Redruth Jose connection, please contact him at tom@montres.com.

March 8 meeting in Vancouver to celebrate St. Piran's Day

For the first time in its history (which only dates back to 1998), the Pacific Northwest Cornish Society will meet in the Portland-Vancouver area on Saturday, March 8, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.. The meeting will celebrate St. Piran's Day, the day honoring Cornwall's patron saint of miners.

The meeting will be at Clark Public Utilities, 1200 Fort Vancouver Way. (See directions below). This is the same place Harry Glasson sang Jan. 8. Besides time to visit and get to know Cornish friends, the meeting will include:

- Pot luck lunch. Please bring a dish to share and your own tableware. Coffee and tea will be provided.
- Business meeting.
- Program, including an overview of St. Piran; the Celtic view of times, seasons and festivals; and singing Cornish songs.

Some housing available

Since some people will have to travel quite a distance to Vancouver, PNCS members in the area offer overnight hospitality to make the trip easier. So far we have offers of space for up to 10 people for Friday night, or 7 people for Saturday. If you would like to be matched to one of these homes, please contact Mary Sisson, sissonrm@qwest.net or (360) 695-9148. If you live in Portland or Vancouver and can offer to house PNCS members, please contact Mary. We can carry on where we left off last summer at the first PNCS "campout" at Gay Knutson's home.

Directions to the meeting:

From the south: Take I-5 across the Interstate Bridge to Mill Plain, the second exit on the Washington side. Turn right onto Mill Plain Blvd., then take the first right onto Fort Vancouver Way. The building on the right is the Clark Public Utilities building, and the meeting will be in the community room on the south end of the building.

From the north: Take I-5 south to Mill Plain, the second to the last exit before crossing to Oregon. Turn left onto Mill Plain Blvd., go under the freeway, then take the first right onto Fort Vancouver Way. The building on the right is the Clark Public Utilities building, and the meeting will be in the community room on the south end of the building.

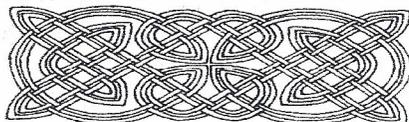

From I-205: Take I-205 to SR 14, (first exit from the south or the last one in Washington from the north). Head west on SR 14, then exit onto I-5. Turn right onto Mill Plain Blvd., then take the first right onto Fort Vancouver Way. The building on the right is the Clark Public Utilities building, and the meeting will be in the community room on the south end of the building.

MEMBER IN ACCIDENT!

Our prayers and concern go to Margaret Porter of McKenna, Washington, who came to the March meeting in Olympia and became a member that day. On Feb. 12 she was involved in a very serious car accident in Tacoma and is in Seattle's Harborview Hospital with a broken hip, fractures of both ankles, heels, left arm and clavicle. She will be in the hospital for quite some time and then in a wheelchair for several months. Margaret and her cousin, Alene Reaugh, may be new to the group, but they are very interested in being involved.

PAROCHIAL HISTORY OF THE COUNTY OF CORNWALL

We have copies of the Parochial History of the County of Cornwall, a four volume set of books with lots and lots of information on old Cornish families. This set of books was donated to us from our Cornish member, Ron Lake, and we had them put on CD, so that all our members could enjoy them! They are available to borrow or purchase. Contact Joan Huston if interested in obtaining a copy!

Bonne LaDoe takes treasurer position

Bonnie LaDoe brings her background in banking to her new role as treasurer of the Pacific Northwest Cornish Society. When the demands of working two jobs, several big volunteer commitments and being a single dad meant Yowann Byghan had to give up the treasurer's post, Bonnie stepped in.

She has opened a new account at US Bank and obtained an EIN number from the federal government so future treasurers don't have to use their social security numbers on accounts with group funds. She also got an Assumed Business Name number from the State of Oregon, necessary to open an account there.

While Bonnie saved the day (and Yowann's sanity), she has stressed that she has taken this on temporarily and will gladly turn over the treasurer's post when elections are held in July.

Yowann continues as membership secretary, which saves us re-printing brochures at this point since his name and address are on them.

Hello Cornish Cousins!

My name is Sher Leetooze, co-chair of the planning committee for the 12th Gathering. I am also in charge of the Vendor Room. Will your society be bringing goods to sell at a table? Two reasons for asking 1. Please book you table NOW, as paying vendors are queuing up for space and I can not sell any until I have spaces for all affiliate societies that want one. 2. There are some very stringent rules and regulations about bringing goods across the border for sale here in Canada. I want to make sure that all Societies that are planning on a sales table have ALL the information they need to do so without any surprises at the border.

Don't forget to urge your membership to get their registrations for the Gathering in as soon as they can. We can only accommodate 300, so don't be disappointed. Thanks, and I hope to meet you all in July!!

Sher
